

Grade 8 Team Bee Words for 2018

1. inertia: Bowling balls rolling down the lanes are great examples of inertia.
2. reprimand: It is rarely fun to receive a reprimand, but it is often good for us in the long run.
3. gondolier: A gondolier is one who propels a Venetian gondola.
4. valise: The savvy traveler picked up his small valise as the train pulled into the station.
5. galleon: I think the ship in the movie National Treasure is a Spanish galleon.
6. sachet: Molly kept a sachet near her basketball shoes to help keep the closet smelling fresh.
7. cyanide: The lab called for dissolving gold in potassium cyanide.
8. munificent: Ebenezer Scrooge was not known for his munificent gifts to the poor.
9. docile: Asleep on the windowsill, the playful kitten looked unusually docile.
10. glutinous: It is always a battle to not be too glutinous when grandma makes apple pie.
11. espionage: Helen is applying for the CIA so that she can be involved in espionage.
12. courteous: Being courteous never goes out of style.
13. eviscerated: The prosecutor eviscerated the defendant on the stand during cross examination.
14. garrison: The commander reported that garrison was already in place for the attack.
15. piedmont: The stream near the piedmont is a beautiful place to hike.
16. fuchsia: Stephanie recently colored her hair a bright fuchsia.
17. treacle: In Harry Potter characters buy treacle tarts in one of the fancy shops.
18. fascist: The fascist regime took over when the citizens remained silent bystanders.
19. proboscis: A proboscis is an animal's long flexible snout.
20. metallurgy: Some people would say metallurgy is a science; others would say it is an art.