N	Name: The Monkey's Paw
	Period: Guiding Questions
•
Answer the following questions in complete sentences. Where applicable please support with evidence. Hint: if the question says "explain or asks 'why'" you must support with evidence.
1.	What does Mr. White mean by, "I should hardly think that he'd come tonight"?
2.	Explain what the sergeant major means when he states, "it's just a bit of what you might call magic."
3.	Why does the sergeant major say, "Better let it burn"? What is "it?"
4.	Read the last two paragraphs of Section 1. How does Herbert's attitude toward the paw shift after his experience with the fire? Cite specific evidence in the text that indicates where the shift occurs.
	The property of the second of

5.	Identify an example of foreshadowing in the story and explain what this instance foreshadows

6.	What does the author mean by the "sinister meaning of the assurance" and the "awful confirmation of her fears"? How do the words "sinister" and "awful" contribute to the tone of the text?
7.	Describe 2 types of conflict in "The Monkey's Paw." Which is most important?
8.	Why does Mr. White say, "Don't let it in"? What is Mr. White afraid of?
9.	What is Mr. White's "third and last wish"? Cite evidence from the text to support your response.